

Corrected Amendments to Claims

This listing of claims will replace all prior versions, and listing, of claims of the application:

Listing of Claims:

1. A television picture or image enhancing system comprising: a device located ~~within in~~ in the television ~~and~~ at and between the location of the originating television signal going from the television station to the television and the television signal receiver which varies or allows the variation of the perception as in a prescription for vision of the ~~pictures~~ picture or images ~~image on or from signal sent from the television station to a television screen~~ signal receiver with the prescription and then to the viewing screen.

2. The television picture or image enhancing system described in claim 1, wherein the vision prescription may not vary.

Claim 3. (deleted)

4. The television picture or image enhancing system described in claim 1, wherein the system may not be attached directly to a television.

5. A television picture or image enhancing system comprising: an eye-glass prescriptive signal delivering device that provides eye-glass prescriptive signals as in a prescription for vision of the pictures or images ~~to a television screen prior to the television picture or image appearing or displayed on the television screen through broadcasted television signal~~ manipulation of the original broadcasted television station signal going to a television receiver and is located at the television station and similar entity and between the television station and the television signal receiver.

6. The television picture or image enhancing system described in claim 5, wherein the vision prescription may not vary.

7. The television picture or image enhancing system described in claim 5, wherein the system may be attached directly to a television and located and between the television station and the television signal receiver.

8. The television picture or image enhancing system described in claim 5, wherein the system may not be attached directly to a television.

9. A television picture or image enhancing system comprising: a television screen that exists ~~alone~~ as a stand-alone prescription television signal broadcasting receiver-receiving and viewing surface ~~only~~.